

FY2020 Survey on Assistance to Technical Intern Trainees after returning to home countries

1. Purpose of Survey

This survey aims to study the employment status of the technical intern trainees who returned to their home countries in FY 2019 (hereinafter referred to as “former trainees”), job/skill transfer support and acquisitions of skills, etc. during the technical intern training for supervising organizations and implementing organizations of individual enterprise-type training (hereinafter referred to as “supervising organizations”).

2. Survey target

Supervising Organizations, etc.

3. Survey method

- 1) Send survey forms and online response manuals to survey subjects.
- 2) Survey subject answers the questionnaire and return it to OTIT survey office or respond online.
- 3) Multiple choice and free description

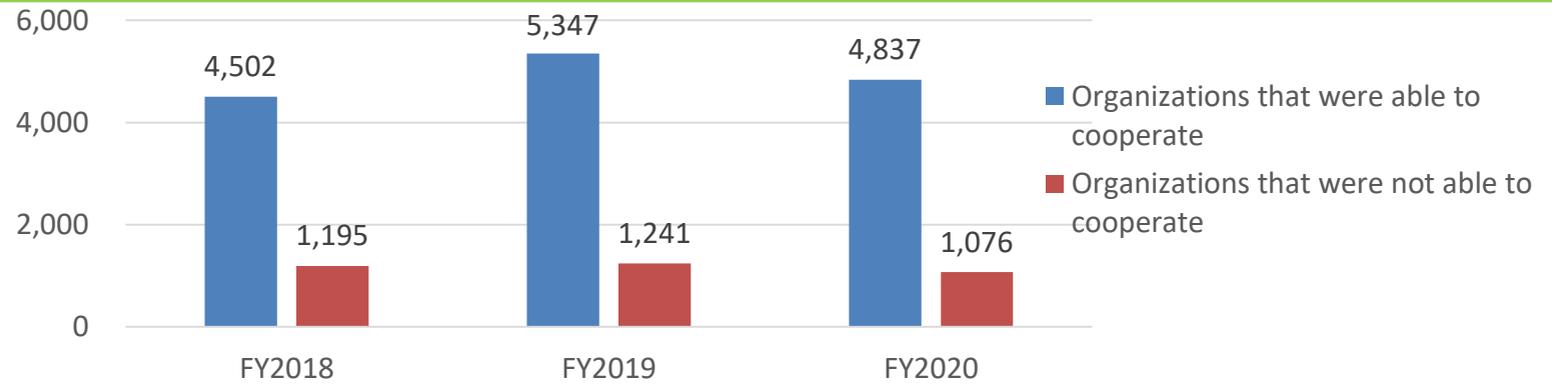

4. Number of valid answers and response rate

Number of survey targets	Number of valid answers	Response rate
2,708	2,555	94.4%

Cooperation status of former trainees after returning home countries

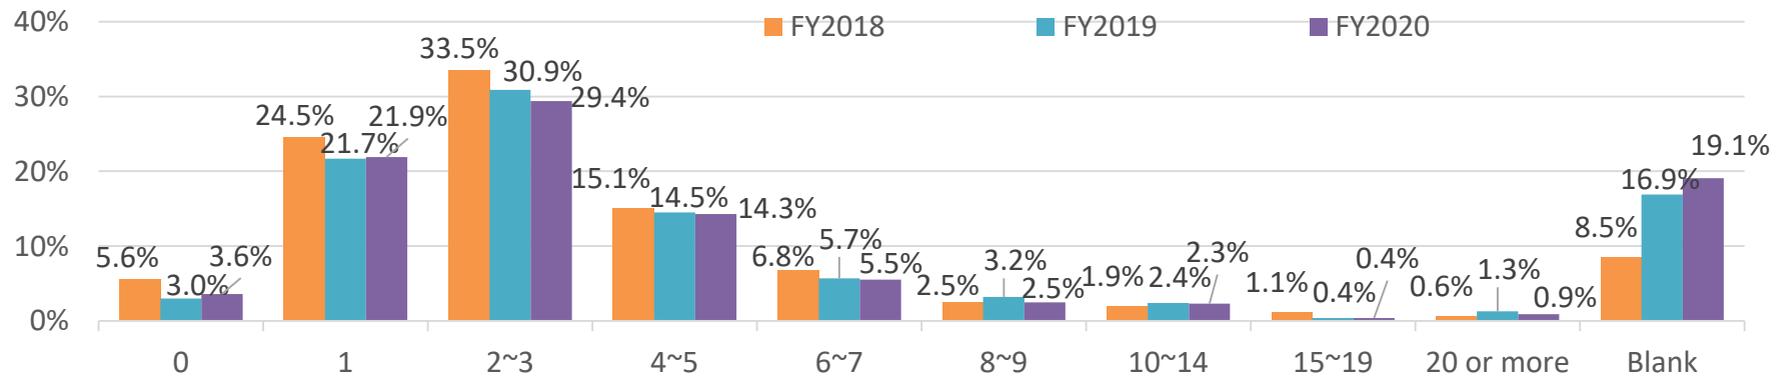

Cooperation status with the sending organization

In relation to the survey on situations of former technical intern trainees after returning to home countries, the number of sending organizations keeping a cooperative relationship with supervising organizations was 4,837, which is 81.8% of the sending organization.

Status of Organizations that were able to cooperate

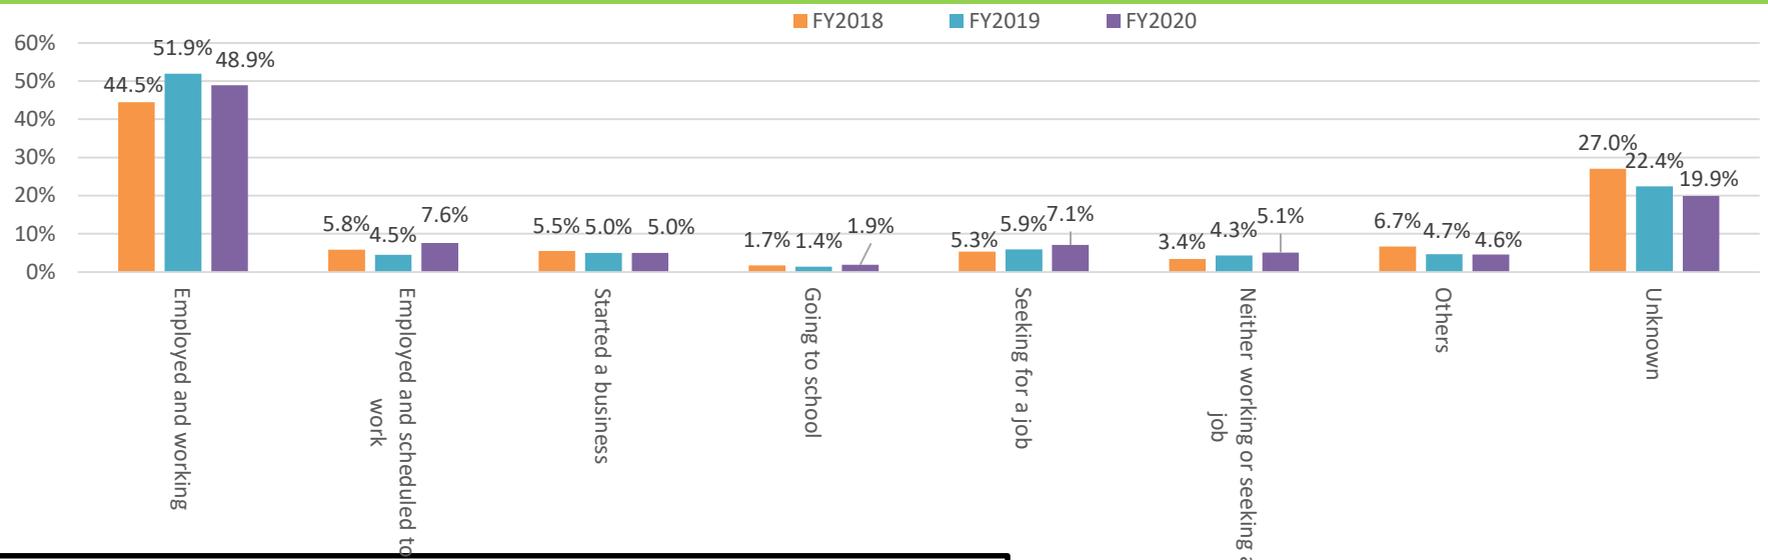

Regarding the number of sending organizations which keep a cooperative relationship with supervising organizations, the largest number of supervising organizations answered that they were 2-3 organizations, accounting for 29.4%.

Employment status of former trainees after returning to home countries

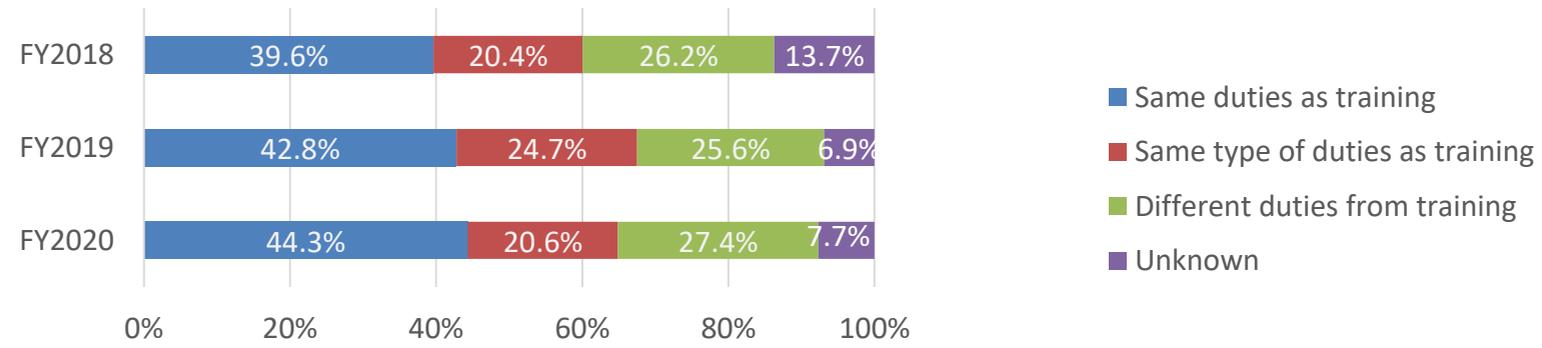

Employment status of former trainees after returning home countries

In regards to the employment status after returning to their home countries, 61.5% of the total respondents answered either “employed and working”(48.9%), “scheduled to work” (7.6%), or “started own business”(5.0%).

Specific job duties after returning home countries

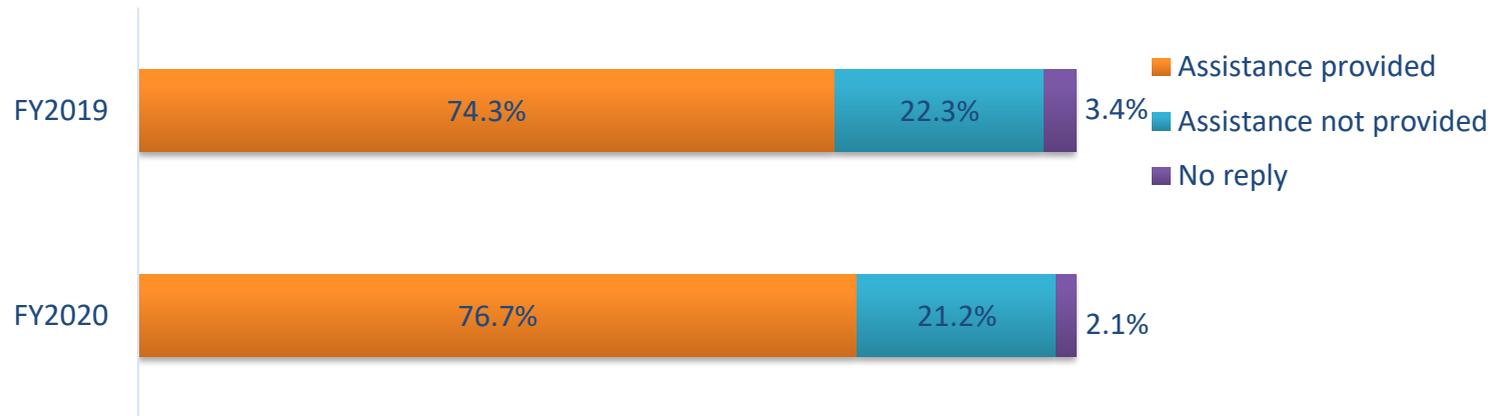

64.9% of the former trainees responded that their specific job duties are “same as training”(44.3%) or “same as type of job duties as the training”(20.6%).

Assistance to former training after returning to home countries

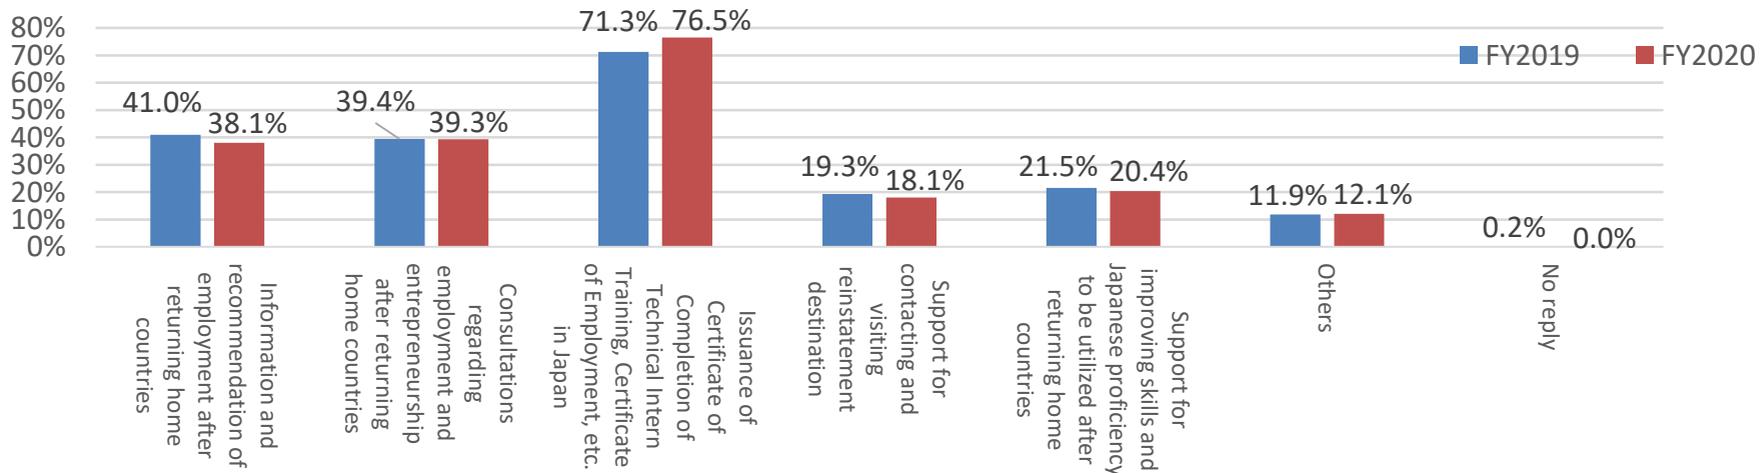

Assistance status for promoting skill transfer of former trainees

76.7% of the supervising organizations answered that they provided assistance for promoting skill transfer of former trainees (including cooperative relationship and assistance to sending organizations).

Specific support details

As for the specific details, “Issuance of Certificate of Completion of Technical Intern Training, Certificate of Employment, etc. in Japan” was the most common at 76.5%, “Information and recommendation of employment after returning home countries” was 38.1%, and “Consultations regarding employment and entrepreneurship after returning home countries” followed by 39.3%.

Progress of technical intern trainees during the training period

In relation to the progress of technical intern trainees during training period

Currently, 95.8% of the supervising organizations answered that they are proceeding according to the Technical Intern Training Plan regarding technical intern trainees residing in Japan.

